(Full Term – January 8 to March 25)
Location – Raymond Hall

For too long the book of Revelation has been a closed book. Many of us find it difficult to understand with its weird visions and strange creatures! Neglected, misunderstood, and grossly perverted, the book of Revelation stands quite alone in the New Testament. In the first few verses God promises to bless those who read and take to heart the words of the Book of Revelation. Many people are either afraid to read this wonderful book or simply can't understand it. Revelation is not a doomsday book but rather a call to live faithfully as Christian believers in tough times with the full assurance that victory in Christ is ours. Through John's visions the curtain of time is pulled back and we have the incredible privilege of seeing what is happening in the heavenly realm. Loosely based on Eugene Peterson's delightful book, Reversed Thunder, we will study the Book of Revelation together. It is my hope that as you read the Book of Revelation with new eyes that you might find yourself like the Twenty Four Elders in chapter five, "falling down before the Lamb to Worship Him!"

"Peacemaking for Families" by Ken Sande and Tom Raabe
(First Half Term – January 8 to February 12)
Location – Pastor Rob's Office

Jill Comeau
Facilitator

We long for a home that is a haven from a world riddled by conflict, but the reality for too many families - even Christian families - is different. For them the home is a place of skirmishes between family members, where personal desires collide and peace cannot be found. Sande and Raabe show that family conflict is inevitable and normal. Using Scripture and stories from family life, the authors offer hope and help. You will appreciate practical, easy to remember truths.

"Youth Culture 101" by Walt Mueller
(Second Half Term – February 19 to March 25)
Location – Pastor Rob's Office

Renée Embree
Facilitator

Even though we once were teenagers, we'll never fully understand them. Times and cultures change, and the world of today's teenagers is far different than it was for us. But there's hope—we can understand them better and minister to them more effectively and meaningfully. In Youth Culture 101 you'll discover more about teenage culture than you can imagine. Through Mueller's in-depth research and observations, you'll better understand media and music that matters to teenagers, pressures they face, their struggles with substance abuse and depression, teenage faith, and much more! This class is for those who are parenting or ministering to teenagers right now or will be in the future.
